You may have recently received a letter in the mail about the Talking Book Topics catalog. Unfortunately, due to ongoing paper supply issues and severe cost increases associated with printing, the National Library Service for the Blind and Print Disabled has made the hard decision to permanently cease the printing of the large-print version of Talking Book Topics. It will still be available as an audio magazine and available online at www.loc.gov/nls/tbt. The Talking Book Center will continue to provide monthly newsletters and we are able to print sections of the catalog upon request. So far our most requested sections are mystery/suspense, historical fiction, religious themes, and nonfiction. Give us a call and we'll be more than happy to mail catalog sections to you!

The Talking Book Center annual patron survey will be arriving in your mailbox very soon! The survey is completely optional and we always appreciate your feedback. We use these statistics and comments to apply for funding, to promote the TBC, and to improve our service.

DB 92245 Where The Crawdads Sing by Delia Owens is now a movie! Annotation: In late 1969, when Chase Andrews is found dead, the locals of Barkley Cove, North Carolina, immediately suspect Kya Clark, the so-called Marsh Girl. But Kya is not what they say. Sensitive and intelligent, she has survived for years alone in the marsh that she calls home. 2018. (contains some violence, the movie is rated PG-13)
