GUIDELINES FOR REAL ESTATE TAX RELIEF

1. You must own, or partially own, the property for which you request relief on January 1 of the tax year.
2. The head of the household occupying the dwelling and owning title, or partial title thereto, must be at least sixty-five (65) years old or permanently and totally disabled on December 31 for the year preceding the tax year. If the head of household is under age sixty-five (65), you must attach a certificate from the Veterans Administration, Railroad Retirement Board, or Social Security Administration. If you are not eligible for certification by either of the afore mentioned agencies, you must attach a sworn affidavit by two (2) medical doctors licensed to practice medicine in the Commonwealth of Virginia. These sworn affidavits must state that the applicant is totally and permanently disabled. The affidavit of at least one (1) of the doctors shall be based upon a physical examination of you by the doctor who makes the sworn statement.
3. The gross combined income of the owner during the year immediately preceding the tax year shall be determined, by the Commissioner of the Revenue, to be an amount not to exceed $30,000. Gross combined income shall include all income, from all sources of the owner and spouse and income in excess of $2,500 of each person living in the dwelling for which exemption is claimed. "Owner" as used herein shall be construed as "Owners".
4. The total combined net financial worth of the owner as of December 31, of the year immediately preceeding the tax year shall be determined by the Commissioner of the Revenue to be an amount not to exceed $62,500. Total net financial worth shall include all assets, including equitable interest, of the owner and of the spouse of any owner for which exemption for is claimed, shall exclude the fair market value of the dwelling and the land, not exceeding one acre, upon which the dwelling is located.
5. Annually, and not later than May 1 of the taxable year, the person or persons claiming an exemption must file an application for tax relief with the Commissioner of the Revenue.
6. Failure to pay the difference between the exemption and the full amount of taxes levied on the property for which the exemption is issued, by the deadlines established for collection, shall constitute a forfeiture of the exemption.
7. Any person or persons falsely claiming an exemption under this Ordinance shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof, shall be punishable in the manner prescribed in Section 11.1 of the code of the City of Staunton.
8. We must have documentation of all figures entered on this application including, but not limited to, income, bank account statements, social security, pensions, stocks, bonds, insurance, interest, etc. Please attach this documentation to your completed application. The application cannot be processed until all information is received.
