

Attention

SNAP Applicants and Recipients

IMPORTANT INFORMATION about

February 2019 SNAP Benefit Issuance

Please budget the early February 2019, SNAP allotment accordingly, as the early issuance of SNAP benefits is not in addition to normal benefit allotment issuance.

SNAP Benefits for the month of February will be issued earlier than normal, on or about January 17, 2019.

These funds are not in addition to January 2019 benefits, but early for the month of February 2019.

Your Local Department of Social Services' office will make every effort to process applications, Interims and Renewals as quickly as possible. If you are a SNAP applicant or recipient (who is due to complete an Interim or a Renewal) it is crucial that you turn in all required documents as quickly as possible, to allow your Local Department of Social Services time to process your case.

Your Local Department of Social Services' office will continue to accept SNAP applications and process Interims and Renewals as normal business practices require.

