Information from NLS:

The Marrakesh Treaty provides for the exchange of accessible-format books across international borders by organizations that serve people who are blind, visually impaired, and print disabled. That means foreign language titles are available to you! The Talking Book Center currently has access to Spanish, Chinese, Russian, French, German, Arabic, Portuguese, and Japanese language audiobooks and will be happy to assist patrons in finding the titles they are looking for. In addition to audiobooks, foreign language braille books are also available.

What is BARD?

BARD is the free app provided by the National Library Service for patrons to access reading materials with their smartphone or tablet. All Talking Book Center patrons are eligible for the free service but a tablet, smartphone, and Wi-Fi is required.

Reading is for Everyone!

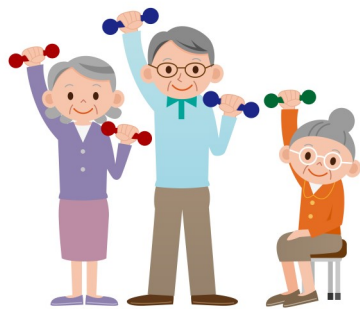

Financial donations made to the Talking Book Center are always appreciated. Contributions can be made through PayPal, check, or through community support such as Amazon Smile and Kroger Community Rewards.

Local Events:

Augusta County Library in Fishersville will be hosting “Profiles of Honor”, a scanning project on September 20 10:00– 3:00 and September 21 9:00– noon. This project is a partnership between the Library of Virginia and the Virginia WWI and WWII Commemoration Commission. Residents can bring photographs, letters, or related items to be professionally scanned for the Profiles of Honor project. Call 540-8885-3961 for more information or visit www.VirginiaWorldWarII.org

Staunton Public Library will be hosting Geri-Fit Exercise Class Tuesdays and Thursdays in September and November at 2pm. The program is designed for older adults with differing abilities. Instructions are displayed on a large screen while participants utilize chairs and light weights to improve balance, flexibility, and strength. Attend one class or all, no registration is required, classes are free!
