

Virginia Department of Historic Resources Historic Trades Directory

This directory is provided by the Virginia Department of Historic Resources (VDHR) as a service to those in Virginia seeking the professional assistance of people with expertise in historic preservation. This directory does not presume to be all inclusive; however, all consultants, craftsmen, artisans, and contractors with historic building experience who request inclusion will be listed.

This is not an “approved” list. The inclusion of an individual or firm in this directory is not an endorsement by VDHR or a demonstration of professional competence. As a government agency, VDHR cannot recommend the services of an individual consultant or business and does not accept responsibility for the performance of any consultant.

Determining the suitability of the providers is the responsibility of the user. It is the responsibility of the property owner to obtain all appropriate permits and to ascertain that contractors have the appropriate licenses. Licensing requirements and status may be checked at www.dpor.virginia.gov.

Other resources for locating additional firms are:

- Clem Labine’s Traditional Building, www.traditional-building.com;
- Restore Media Trade Directory, www.restorationandbuildingservices.com; and
- Preservation Trades Network, www.PTN.org

For guidance on planning preservation projects, refer to the National Park Service’s Preservation Briefs at www.nps.gov/tps/how-to-preserve/briefs.htm.

Easement properties and rehabilitation tax credit projects must follow the Secretary of the Interior’s Standards for Rehabilitation, which may be found at www.nps.gov/tps/standards/rehabilitation.htm.

Businesses who would like to be included in this directory should contact Megan Melinat at megan.melinat@dhr.virginia.gov.
